desirable to amend the Regulation providing a clause therein, giving power to Government to impose suitable restrictions while giving back possession in such cases. Government therefore propose that a clause may be added to this Section.

The Regulation also contemplates several kinds of acts to be undertaken by Muzrai Officers such as management of properties of the Mutts, management of properties belonging to other Charitable Institutions, the conduct of enquiries, etc. It is usual in legislation of this kind to put in a clause giving proper protection to Government Officers in the bonafide discharge of their duties. Government propose therefore that a new section containing this provision be inserted after Section 40 A as Section 40 B of the said Regulation.

Statement of Objects and Reasons.

The Committee appointed by the Government in 1934 to consider measures of relief to the agriculturists to tide over the economic depression, recommended, among other measures, the reduction of agricultural debts by conciliation between the debtors and the creditors. In accepting the recommendation, the Government have come to the conclusion that a scheme of debt conciliation on a voluntary basis may be introduced. For implementing this, the Government propose to introduce a Bill to make provision for the setting up of Conciliation Boards to relieve agriculturists' indebtedness on the line of the Acts which have been passed in the Central Provinces and Madras. The main provisions of the Bill are as follows:—

This measure applies to agriculturists who earn their living mainly by agriculture and whose debts exceed Rs. 100.

It provides for the appointment of Debt Conciliation Boards consisting of a Chairman and two members appointed by the Government who shall hold office for a period of three years.

Any creditor or debtor who wants the intercession of the board may apply to it.

Notice is sent to the creditors and the debtor and the creditor are brought face to face with each other.

The board tries to persuade the parties to come to an amicable settlement. If the creditors to whom not less than 50 per cent of the debts are due and the debtor agree to a settlement, that agreement is recorded by the board and registered and it has got the same effect as a decree of a civil court.

The amounts due under the agreement if not paid, shall be recoverable by the Deputy Commissioner as an arrear of land revenue. If they are not so recovered, the amount may be recovered as if a decree of a civil court had been passed for its payment.

In case there is no settlement and the creditor is responsible for refusing to agree to an amicable settlement, the board shall, if it is of opinion that the debtor has made a fair offer, grant the debtor a certificate in respect of the debts owed by him to such creditor. If the creditor subsequently sues in a court for the recovery of a debt in respect of which a certificate has been granted, the court shall not allow the creditor costs of the suit or interest at more than 6 per cent after the date of such certificate.

Further, if after the registration of an agreement any unsecured creditor sues for the recovery of a debt, any decree passed in such a suit shall not be executed as against the assets of the debtor set apart in the agreement until all the amounts regarded as payable under such an agreement have been paid.

Even those creditors who are not inclined to agree to an amicable settlement will be induced to agree, since otherwise they will not get any relief until all those who have agreed obtain relief. There are provisions in the Bill which act as deterrents to creditors who refuse to be accommodative and as inducements to those who are helpful.

The jurisdiction of a civil court is barred in respect of any matter pending before the board.

Any order passed by the board will be final.
